

EDMOND DE ROTHSCHILD ANNOUNCES YVES AESCHLIMANN'S RESIGNATION

Edmond de Rothschild (Suisse) S.A. announces the resignation, to join another banking group, of Yves Aeschlimann, Head of Legal and Compliance for Edmond de Rothschild (Suisse) S.A. and the Group and a member of these entities' Executive Committees.

We would like to thank him for his achievements with his work.

On an ad interim basis, responsibility for these functions has been taken on by Mr Jean-Christophe Pernollet, Chief Risk Officer, since 18 October 2018.

ABOUT THE EDMOND DE ROTHSCHILD GROUP

An ambitious investment firm founded on the idea that wealth should provide the means for building the future, Edmond de Rothschild is an independent family group specialised in Private Banking and Asset Management. In all of its activities, the Group puts a priority on ambitious strategies and long-term investments, based on the real economy - infrastructure, healthcare, biotechnology, investments with impact. The Group was founded in 1953, and since 2015 has been under the direction of Ariane de Rothschild, Chairwoman of the Executive Committee.

The Group has CHF182 billion in assets under management, 2,600 employees and 27 offices around the world as at 31 December 2017.

Press contacts:

EDMOND DE ROTHSCHILD

Florence Gaubert
M. +33 6 25 28 11 51
f.gaubert@edr.com

Stefania Mercuri
M. +41 75 434 98 56
s.mercuri@edr.com