

Edmond de Rothschild Asset Management appoints Dominik Kremer as Head of Distribution for Germany and Austria

- Dominik Kremer joins Edmond de Rothschild Asset Management with the objective to further develop and drive business activities across liquid and illiquid capabilities in institutional and wholesale channels.

Edmond de Rothschild Asset Management announces the appointment of Dominik Kremer, effective January 7th, as Head of Distribution Germany and Austria and Head of Branch for the Frankfurt office. In his new role Dominik Kremer will lead the Germany & Austria distribution team and drive forward sales activities, for institutional clients and distributors through local initiatives. Dominik is based in Frankfurt and reports to Marie Jacot, Global Head of Distribution of Edmond de Rothschild Asset Management.

Dominik Kremer brings over 30 years of extensive experience in asset management, with a strong focus on fundraising, global distribution, and business development. He joins Edmond de Rothschild from Haven Green Investment Management in Frankfurt, where he was Global Head of Sales since June 2022. Prior to that, Dominik served as Global Head of Business Development and as a member of the Executive Management Committee at Unigestion in Geneva and London. Prior to that he held various leadership roles at Columbia Threadneedle Investments in London and Frankfurt, from 2010 to 2019, most lately as Head of Institutional EMEA and Latin America and Co-Head of Distribution EMEA. Dominik also spent 10 years at Pioneer Investments (UniCredit Banking Group) in Munich, Milan, and London, from December 2001 to July 2010. Dominik started his career at Fidelity Investments in Client servicing, progressively moving to senior sales and strategic roles, focusing on institutional client management and distribution strategy. Dominik holds a postgraduate diploma in Business Administration from Manchester Business School and degrees in Arts and Law from the University of Stellenbosch, South Africa.

Marie Jacot, Global Head of Distribution at Edmond de Rothschild AM commented on the appointment: “We are delighted to welcome Dominik to Edmond de Rothschild Asset Management. His extensive experience in distribution and business development across Europe, combined with a deep understanding of client needs, will be a strong asset as we continue to strengthen our footprint in Germany and Austria. His appointment underscores our long-term commitment to these key markets.”
