

EDMOND DE ROTHSCHILD ASSET MANAGEMENT APPOINTS VICTOIRE DUBRUJEAUD AS HIGH YIELD PORTFOLIO MANAGER

Edmond de Rothschild Asset Management has appointed Victoire Dubrujeaud as High Yield Portfolio Manager-analyst in the fixed income team. She starts on 28 October 2024.

Paris, 28 October 2024: Based in Paris, Victoire Dubrujeaud is joining Edmond de Rothschild AM's Fixed Income franchise headed by Alain Krief. Alain and his team manage €8.6 billion<sup>1</sup>. Victoire will be joining the high yield debt team lead by Alexis Foret, and will work alongside portfolio manager Alexis Sebah, strengthening coverage of European issuers. She will be part of the team managing €2.5bn of high yield pure corporate debt assets in target-date strategies, open ended funds as well as institutional mandates.

With 15 years of experience, Victoire Dubrujeaud brings valuable expertise. Prior to joining the group, Victoire was a high yield portfolio manager at La Française Asset Management, responsible for high yield elements of LFAM's total return strategies. She also managed high yield assets at Oddo BHF in Paris and for SCOR IP as a leveraged loans analyst.

Victoire started her career at Amundi in 2010 as a buy side credit analyst.

She holds a Masters in Economics and Financial Engineering from Université Paris-Dauphine and Université Panthéon-Assas.

Alain Krief, Head of Fixed Income at Edmond de Rothschild AM, said: «We have over €2.5 billion of high yield assets under management so this is a key asset class for us. Victoire's joining the team is great news. I'm confident her experience will benefit the team by enhancing and deepening our expertise.»
