MARTIN LIEBI APPOINTED DEPUTY CEO OF EDMOND DE ROTHSCHILD (SUISSE) S.A.

Martin Liebi has been appointed Deputy CEO of Edmond de Rothschild (Suisse) S.A. where he will lead Private Banking activities in Switzerland. This appointment will be effective on January 4, 2017. He will join the Bank's Executive Committee and, as Deputy CEO of Swiss Private Banking, will report to Emmanuel Fiévet, CEO of Edmond de Rothschild (Suisse) S.A. and Head of International Private Banking.

Martin Liebi (1965), a Swiss national, enjoys a wealth of Senior Management experience in the banking and financial sectors with Swiss and international clients, and has worked in all parts of Switzerland. He was previously a member of the Executive Committee and Head of Private Banking at Notenstein La Roche Privatebank, where he successfully managed various growth projects related to private clients and the strengthening of Notenstein's offices in Switzerland. Prior to that, he was during seven years member of the Executive Committee and Head of the Zurich office and of the Swiss CRMs of Schroders Switzerland, where he was in charge of the entire Swiss and international private client base over the past years. He also worked with Lloyds TSB Bank in Geneva and with Credit Suisse in Lugano. Martin Liebi holds a degree in economics from the University of Bern.

Emmanuel Fiévet, CEO of Edmond de Rothschild (Suisse) S.A. commented: "We are pleased to welcome Martin Liebi as the new Head of our Private Banking activities in Switzerland. His experience and his competencies will significantly benefit our activities. This decision is part of the Edmond de Rothschild Group's strategy to continue its growth in its priority markets, in particular Switzerland and Europe." The appointment of Martin Liebi, pending FINMA approval, will be effective as of January 4, 2017. As a new member of the Executive Committee, Martin Liebi will succeed Luca Venturini, who becomes Head of Client Solutions of Edmond de Rothschild (Suisse) S.A.'s International Private Bank, and retains his responsibilities as Global Market Manager Italy. Luca Venturini will continue to report to Emmanuel Fiévet.
