

Banque Privée Edmond de Rothschild SA (BPER), Swiss arm of the Edmond de Rothschild Group Consolidated results at 31.12.2013

Banque Privée Edmond de Rothschild SA, Swiss arm of the Edmond de Rothschild Group, saw its assets under management grow 5.8% last year to CHF 108.6 billion. The net inflow of fresh money totalled CHF 1.5 billion.

Consolidated net profit came to CHF 75.4 million, up 13.7% on the 2012 level. Our capital ratio now stands at 36%.

These results reflect our Bank's dynamic business development and a buoyant stockmarket environment that generated strong gains in asset values, along with a large volume of brokerage business.

We further expanded in all of our business segments while controlling costs, despite ever mounting regulatory pressure.

Capital ratio

Banque Privée Edmond de Rothschild continues to boast a healthy, liquid balance sheet. This, in combination with conservative risk management, has raised our capital ratio to 36%.

Dividend

At the Annual Meeting of Shareholders on 29 April 2014, the Board of Directors will propose the payment of a dividend totalling CHF 56,250,000 (unchanged compared with the previous year).
