LUCA VENTURINI BECOMES DEPUTY CEO OF EDMOND DE ROTHSCHILD (SUISSE) SA

Luca Venturini has been appointed Deputy Chief Executive Officer of Edmond de Rothschild (Suisse) SA*, where he will mainly head our Private Banking business in Switzerland. The appointment will take effect from 31 July 2014. He will join the Bank's Executive Committee and report to Emmanuel Fievet, CEO of Edmond de Rothschild (Suisse) SA.

Mr Venturini is a veteran private banker who knows our Group well. Under his guidance our subsidiary Edmond de Rothschild (Lugano) SA has achieved remarkable performances over the past three years, and now we look forward to benefiting from his experience in Geneva. His transfer reflects our desire to promote talent within the Bank.

Hervé de Montlivault, a member of the Executive Committee of Edmond de Rothschild (Suisse) SA, will leave the Bank at end-July 2014.

Luca Venturini, 45, studied Law at the University of Milan and was admitted to the Milan bar in 1998. He also earned a Master's degree of Arts in Management at Middlesex University Business School, London. After garnering extensive experience in the Family Office and Asset Management segments, he worked for Credit Suisse Private Banking and Banque Sarasin Ltd in Switzerland, Hong Kong and Singapore. He has successfully directed Edmond de Rothschild (Lugano) SA since 2011. Under his leadership the subsidiary's assets under management grew from CHF 3.6 billion in 2011 to over CHF 5.0 billion at end-December 2013.
